Additional Backup Information

COUNCIL ON AT-RISK YOUTH (CARY) has a mission of “helping youth promote safe schools and communities”. CARY provides services to youth to address issues related to youth violence and juvenile delinquency. Youth are provided with case management services for twelve months, which includes violence prevention, social cognitive skills training, individual behavioral planning, counseling and mentoring, and service learning projects designed and implemented by participating students.

On September 10, 2012, during the budget approval process, Council directed $200,000 be allocated for a social services contract with CARY for youth services.
